

Figure 18. Percentage of fatty acids peak areas of low and high quality black sea bass eggs produced following spawning induced by the L-50-slow hormone treatment. Data represent means  $\pm$  standard error ( $N = 3$ ). Mean values, of the same parameter, with an asterisk (\*) are significantly ( $P < 0.05$ ) different.