

Figure 19. Percentage of saturated (SFA), mono-unsaturated (MUFA), and poly-unsaturated fatty acid (PUFA) peak areas of low and high quality black sea bass eggs produced following spawning induced by the L-50-slow hormone treatment. Data represent means \pm standard error ($N = 3$). For each fatty acid group, means with a different letter are significantly ($P < 0.05$) different.