

Figure 20. Percentage of peak areas of ARA, EPA, and DHA of low and high quality black sea bass eggs produced following spawning induced by the L-50-slow hormone treatment. Data represent mean  $\pm$  standard error ( $N = 3$ ). For each fatty acid, means with a different letter are significantly ( $P < 0.05$ ) different.